

Our Church Matters
 Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
 Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

This year's RUMC 2017 Woman of the year is a mother of a daughter and son and is married to RUMC 2016 Man of the year.

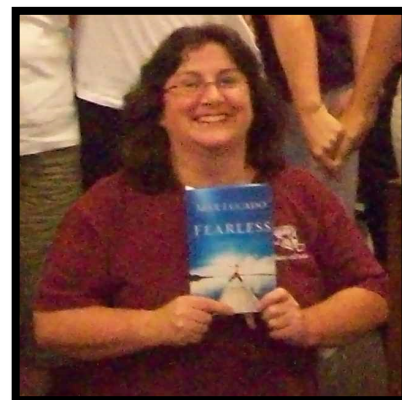

She's been part of many different church committees over her years at RUMC.

- She's been the Chair of Education
- She's been a Sunday School teacher for most of her 20+ years at RUMC
- Similarly, she has been involved with organizing and teaching in VBS for almost as long.
- She helps to run a Kiwanis team
- She helped turn the Bruce Prothero tragedy into a support group for mothers and helped create the Circle of Friends as a result in which she has held numerous leadership roles.
- She's been feeding a couple hundred families every month for years through the running of the RUMC Food Pantry.
- She started up the Community Kitchen to give people a hot meal once a month
- She works at the Reisterstown United Methodist Nursery School
- She's currently the President of the United Methodist Women

I'm very happy to announce RUMC's 2017 Woman of the Year is Lani Hoffmann!

Dear Pastor Vivian and all of our RUMC family,

We can't thank you enough for all your cards, prayers, food, hugs given to us for our brother, Steve Nester's passing. A special thanks to Vivian for the wonderful comforting words she gave to our brother's family and at the funeral service. The Nester family was very thankful for all the support given to them.

Also a special thanks to the RUMW who prepared the food for the funeral luncheon. All the food was very good and enjoyed by all! A special shout out to Sue Wright, for making the phone calls and putting the luncheon together.

God bless all of you,

The Nester Family

My book club recently read The Sea Keeper's Daughters by Lisa Wingate. It's the story of Whitney Monroe, who's struggling financially while trying to keep her restaurant afloat and open a second one. When her stepfather's unexpectedly hospitalized, Whitney sees it as a good opportunity to travel to her late grandmother's former hotel and look for valuables among her grandmother's and her late mother's possessions, which are now rightfully hers. During her search, she uncovers a family secret which causes her to look at her grandmother in a different way. She also learns new things about her mother and her mother's relationships with Whitney's late father and stepfather. Check it out for yourself in our church library. -Beth Waters

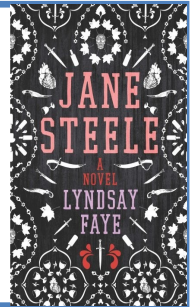

Library Log

1. We have several new books for your summer enjoyment. Just look for "summer" in the titles.
2. Don't forget about the UMW reading program. Your list is due to Brenda Soskin by early September.
3. The History and Records cabinet in the corner of the library is now finished. We will be hearing more from that committee about what will be available to us in the near future.

Book club will meet at the home of Brenda Soskin for a cookout on Wednesday, July 19. Time and what food to bring will soon be planned. We will discuss Jane Steele by Lyndsay Faye. This is a murder mystery but we know who the murderer is. It is a "remake" of Jane Eyre which tells the story of another orphan who thinks she could be the rightful heir of her childhood home. The current owner is seeking a governess. Sound familiar?

Christ's hands

In World War II, bombs destroyed a church in Strasbourg, France. As parishioners cleared the rubble, they discovered a statue of Jesus that was now missing both hands. A visiting sculptor later offered to make repairs, but church members declined, saying Christ "has no hands to minister to the needy or feed the hungry or enrich the poor — except our hands. He inspires. We perform."

St. Teresa of Avila wrote:

Christ has no body but yours; no hands, no feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes with which he looks compassion on this world.
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good.
Yours are the hands with which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now but yours.

Friendship Snack Mix

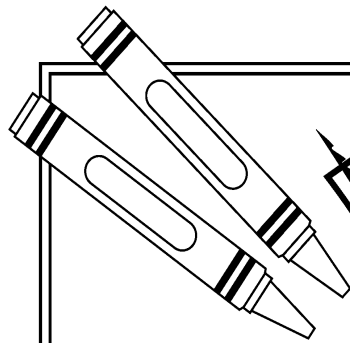

Life is more interesting when you have a diverse “mix” of friends. Show your variety of buddies how much they mean to you by making this snack for (or with!) them.

What you need:

- 1 cup fish-shaped crackers
- 1 cup chocolate Chex
- 1 cup mini pretzels
- 1 cup peanut butter crackers
- ½ cup mini M&M’s
- Large bowl
- Snack-sized zippered baggies
- Permanent markers
- Foam stickers

What you do:

1. Mix all the food in the bowl.
2. Write a personalized message on each baggie. Decorate with stickers.
3. Measure some snack mix into each baggie. Seal them shut.
4. Share this snack with your friends!

Do you Like to Cook? Looking for an evening out with dinner?

We are currently looking to replace some of our Kiwanis cooking teams.

Our church has had an on-going relationship for over 50 years with the Kiwanis Club.

Twice a month on Tuesdays, they hold their meetings at our church and we cook dinner for them.

The Kiwanis Club pays for these dinners and all of that money is used for missions.

The money supports the Crisis Center, the Food Pantry, a sponsored child, youth scholarships and more.

After many, many years of devoted service, several of our teams feel it is time to step down.

We are looking for new kitchen leadership.

What is involved?

- We have a rotating schedule, so you would only be on duty once every other month.
- We cook and serve dinner for approximately 18 people.
- If you are interested in this wonderful outreach,

please contact Lani Hoffmann at 410-526-6967

MEN'S Small Group Study Wednesday Night!

June 21 we started a new 8-week summer book study called Christian: It's Not What You Think by Andy Stanley. In the book, the author examines the characteristics Jesus used to define those who follow him and the implications they have for believers today. It promises to be an interesting read and the basis for some great discussions.

Please consider joining us for this Bible study. All men are welcome; no prior knowledge is required. We all come humbly seeking a better understanding of God's Word. Come as you are...whenever you can.
We invite you to join us!

to benefit Every Child is Worthy Ministries (ECW), helping disabled orphans around the world through outreach, restoration, and the message of Jesus Christ.

ECW is partnering with Church of the Open Door in York, PA to present Dove Award winning artist, Sidewalk Prophets and YouTube sensation Christopher Duffley for an evening of story-telling, music, and fun!

Sidewalk Prophets is a contemporary Christian music band from Nashville, Tennessee. They have toured with Matthew West and Casting Crowns. Their album These Simple Truths contained the single "The Words I Would Say" and earned them a Dove Award for Best New Artist and a nomination for Pop/Contemporary Album of the Year. "The Words I Would Say" reached No. 3, and "You Love Me Anyway" reached No. 1 on the Billboard Christian Singles chart. In 2011 they were nominated for Group of the Year. Their current album, titled Something Different, includes "Prodigal", a top 5 hit.

Christopher Duffley is a motivational speaker who happens to be blind and living with autism. Born prematurely, Christopher weighed only 1lb. 12oz. at birth and was rendered blind before he was 5 months old. Overcoming many challenges, Christopher's musical gift emerged when he was seven. Major media outlets have featured Christopher's story and he became a YouTube sensation when the video of Open the Eyes of My Heart became viral in 2012 and has reached over 9 million views.

On behalf of Every Child is Worthy (ECW) Ministries, we would like to invite you to join us in an opportunity to engage with the special needs community. ECW is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to making a lasting impact on the uniquely-abled community by providing financial solutions, resources, and training to empower the local church, non-government organizations, and institutions working with families of the special needs community. ECW strives to ensure no family is marginalized, but is instead equipped with the resources they need to stay connected within their local community. We hope to maximize the opportunities to hear the Gospel and experience the amazing love of Jesus with partnerships in Ukraine, Zambia, and north Africa. This event was created not only to bring awareness to ECW, but also to highlight what God can do in the life of a special needs child.
