Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

April 2015
Issue 4

Dear Friends,

I don't know what it is about snow drops, but I look for them eagerly every February and I am never disappointed. They tend to bloom right when we need a little reminder that the beauty of spring is just around the corner. This year, mine are really late. They came up last week and just started to bloom this week. For me, they are a sign of Resurrection even more than lilies. They are delicate and brave. No matter how wet or how cold, they still get through. It looks to me like the deep snow kept them from blooming sooner, and I thought we wouldn't see them this year – but there they are! New life in the midst of the mud and the muck of all the mess we have had over the last weeks. They always make my heart sing. Easter is coming!

Our Lenten journey culminates this coming week with Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and ultimately EASTER! As we have been reading The God Story together, this is the week of the climax and resolution of the GREATEST Story Ever Told, and I hope that you will participate in all of the opportunities, finding yourself in these last chapters of the Lent/Easter story.

On Holy Thursday at 7 pm, we will gather in the Asbury Fellowship Hall to begin the service with the Last Supper. Then we will move to the Narthex to visit the Garden of Gethsemane and close the service in the sanctuary.

On Good Friday at noon, the churches of the Northwest Ministerial Association will gather for worship in our sanctuary, with the pastors of the Ministerium leading the service.

Then on Good Friday at 7 pm, we will gather in the Sanctuary for our own service, with a chancel drama of those who encountered Jesus in his walk to the Cross.

Saturday, April 4, is our BIG EASTER EGG HUNT. Please invite all the children you know to come and participate in the egg hunt, the craft-making, and the refreshments (see details below). Our Community Kitchen will offer lunch that day as well, and I hope that a number of us will show up to enjoy a meal and fellowship with our gathered community.

- Expand understanding of and participation in God's mission.
- Increase sensitivity to all human beings—their needs, interests and concerns.
- Encourage critical thinking about issues facing humanity today.
- Grow in understanding of Scripture as it relates to Christian faith in contemporary life.
- Enhance self-knowledge and act from that knowledge.
- Strengthen involvement in local and global Christian mission.

All books, the program brochure and the pamphlet to log your reading are available in the library on the shelf behind the desk. You will find the Response magazine available to read, as well.

If you have any questions, please contact Kelly Fairhurst.

Library Log

1. Thanks to all who attended the Dr. Seuss birthday party on March 8. We hosted 50+ participants including 25 youngsters. The library committee was very excited about planning this event and we hope to sponsor many similar programs for different age groups in our congregation. A special thank you goes to Mark, Al and Phoebe for all their assistance.

2. The library committee visited the Penguin Random House Book Fair which is held annually at Carroll Community College. This is an event meant for raising funds for scholarships. We purchased 35 new books, mostly for young children and middle school teens. We also enjoyed a book talk by a fascinating author, Kate Alcott, who shared stories about writing her latest novel, A Touch of Stardust. We can't wait to read it!

From the Shelves

If you liked "The Secret Life of Bees" and/or "The Mermaid Chair," you'll be glad to know that our church library also has Sue Monk Kidd's latest novel, "The Invention of Wings." Set in Charleston, South Carolina, right before the Civil War, it's historical fiction that deals with the anti-slavery movement. Our two narrators are real-life abolitionist and feminist Sarah Grimke and her fictional slave Handful. We meet them when Sarah receives Handful as a present on her eleventh birthday, and we watch as their relationship changes throughout the years as each girl determines what she wants out of life. Check it out for yourself in our church library.

Botanists say that trees need the powerful March winds to flex their trunks and main branches, so that the sap is drawn up to nourish the budding leaves. Perhaps we need the gales of life in the same way, though we dislike enduring them. A blustery period in our fortunes is often the prelude to a new spring of life and health, success and happiness, when we keep steadfast in faith and look to the good in spite of appearances.

—Jane Truax

The Miracle at 246 Main Street

This miracle has affected more than several thousand youth who auditioned to be a part of what the late William Donald Schaffer, former Mayo and Governor of our beautiful state, referred to, as his "Gang."

I remembered sitting in a classroom 27 years ago thinking that "It's got to be more to this than what I am experiencing." God moved me in another direction. I made a commitment to reach out to as many youth as possible, who were given the precious gift of a voice, to train them and take them further than they could ever dream. Two years later, we were in Europe singing in venues one could only dream of and William Donald Schaffer sent gifts from the State of Maryland as goodwill ambassadors. We completed a successful eight country tour. We returned to Europe in July of 1994, to appear in the Jazz Festival in Montreux, Switzerland singing music by Cole Porter, whose music was recognized throughout Europe.

So, here we are some twenty-odd years later and still training gifted young Americans. Our 2015 singers will present their gifts to you, in our 25th Year Celebration, "Broadway on main Street" on April 25, 2015 in two shows – 2pm and 8pm. On Sunday, April 26th at 2pm, our Off Broadway Kids will present a children's musical presentation, A Disney Spectacular. Bubbles the Clown will also appear. This is a show designed for our "littlest ones." Join us for a weekend of pride, encouragement and fun as you support our very own here at home.

Lynda Stewart has agreed to sell tickets for Maryland Sings to our church community. Please contact Lynda or Bill Myers if you have any questions or desire to purchase tickets.

Easter Music 2015

Music so powerful yet so sweet to the ear...

Hymns and anthems that linger on those beautifully tragic, redemptive moments...

Holy darkness – TRIUMPHANT RESURRECTION

The truth of Easter will be revealed through the spoken message, powerful drama, dance, exciting vocal commitment from soloists and choirs. The majestic and triumphant sounds of brass, the organ and the joyous participation of our youth will say, Death and Darkness" are no more, The splendor of God's light will reveal the diversity of our musical offerings to the Lenten services.

Think about clearing your schedules to be present at each service. He has already cleared His own to be with you. Enjoy your Easter with your church family IN GOD'S HOUSE.

Feel God's presence up close. It's AMAZING!
