

Our Church Matters

Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

Dear Friends

Blessings abound! Beginning on July 1, Susan Harry is now our full-time Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries, and I can just see blessings take shape, bringing our young adults opportunities to connect and find support with each other for their life's journeys – including the spiritual journey that is so important during the many transitions that come in young adulthood – sometimes faster than anyone can imagine! Susan will be reaching out to get to know YOU if you are between the ages of 18 and 30, single, married, with children, without children, divorced – and to discern the best ways for young adults in our faith family to connect with each other. In the meantime, feel free to get in touch with Susan and welcome her to her new role:

rumcyouth1777@gmail.com (yes, we know you aren't youth, but we don't have a young adult email set up yet!).

Are you interested in becoming a member of RUMC? We are looking forward to welcoming some new members to our congregation in the fall. If you are considering membership, please take a look at the article found on our website at <http://rumcweb.org/worship/come-join-us/> for a bit on how we see church membership at RUMC. If you are interested, please let me know by October 1. You may send me an email at pastorvivianmc@gmail.com, put it on your Connection Card, or call the church office so we know who is coming. To prepare for your membership commitment to RUMC, there are 2 sessions you will need to attend:

Sunday, October 23, following the 10:30 service, we will spend 90 minutes over lunch for you to get acquainted with the other new members and to review the vows of membership in the UMC; and

Tuesday, October 25, 6:30 pm in the Church Library, we will gather for 75-90 minutes with the Church Council so that you can meet them and learn a little more about the ministries of RUMC; and then

Sunday, November 13 is New Member Sunday. Each new member will join during the service you normally attend.

My July Schedule

I will be directing Grandparents Camp July 3 through 8 at West River Camp. Please contact either Robine in the church office (410-833-5440) from 8 to 4 each day or one of the lay leaders (Sue Wright – 410-833-6738 or Jon Sadler - (410) 979-8000) if an issue arises. They will determine whether they need to call me at camp.

Then, Rich and I will be on vacation July 15 through 30. We are looking forward to spending those 2 weeks on the shore of the Connecticut River in Vermont! As usual, please contact Robine or the lay leaders (see above paragraph), and they will determine whether a call needs to go out to the pastor on call for me.

I hope that you, too, are planning for some R&R – some Sabbath time – to restore your soul and body in the next few weeks!

Blessings on you!

Dear Ones at RUMC:

Thank you for your cards, prayers and phone calls and beautiful peace plant. We felt very loved throughout the passing and funeral of my mom on Michigan.

Our church family is very important to us and grows still dearer as we share our lives with you.

Love Cheri & Jim Brondyke

Dear Church Family,

Mary and I want to thank everyone for the prayers, cards, phone calls and all the delicious dinners that were delivered to our home. We have some really good cooks at this Church and it was all very much appreciated. Also, thanks to Pastor Vivian for her visits while I was in the hospital. We are so grateful to have this wonderful and caring Church Family.

Blessings

Brit and Mary Weber

Dear Friends of RUMC

I would like to thank everyone for their thoughts and prayers for my Mom and family during the last few years and in her passing.

I also want to thank Pastor Vivian for such a beautiful service for Mom; Kelly Renner for the wonderful music and Cindy Smith and all the ladies who made us such a delicious luncheon.

We are blessed to have such a kind and caring church family.

God's Blessings Always,

Jan Montgomery and all of the family of Ethel Baker

This man was born in 1965 in New York. His father's side of the family were German immigrants. From them he learned a strong work ethic and the importance of family. His maternal grandfather was a Methodist minister and his mother was the church organist. He spent a lot of his early years waiting around the church while she practiced. He grew up in a Methodist church where he attended

Sunday school, was active in youth group and also a member of a traveling youth choir. When he was young, his family of six could be seen buzzing around town in a Volkswagen beetle. In his teen years, he became very active in the martial arts and holds black belts in several of the arts including Jui Jitsu and Nin-jitsu. He attended Hofstra University in New York where he graduated with honors with one of those new creations, a computer science degree. One weekend in 1984 while he was home from college, he met the new minister's daughter. He was a college freshman and she was a junior in high school. They ended up dating for 5 years. After his college graduation, he followed her down to the Washington DC area where she attended college. After her graduation in 1989, they got married and moved to Laurel, Maryland. By day, he was working as a computer programmer and in the evenings they ran a martial arts studio. In 1991 they both changed jobs and moved to the Owings Mills area. They attended RUMC as visitors during Holy week. They were very impressed that they visited for the first time on a busy Palm Sunday, and Rev. Ron Foster remembered them by name the following week on Easter. The altar that week had been decorated with a giant cave that Rev. Trotter rolled away the stone and inside were live bunnies. They felt that they had found a creative and innovative church that they wanted to join. This man and his wife have 2 children, a boy and a girl, who were both raised here in this church. When his wife started teaching Sunday school, he got tired of sitting in a pew alone and joined the Chancel choir.

Since then, he has been a member of the choir, Genesis One, Staff Parish Chair, Lay Leader, Lay Leader to Conference, ROCK chaperone, Church Council chair, and has participated in several skits during worship.

And finally, his wife says the thing she loves most about this man is his compassion and devotion to Christ.

I am honored to present to you the 2016 Man of the Year

George Hoffman

More than just papers!

The History and Records Committee has been very busy organizing and purging the records of Reisterstown United Methodist Church. In June we received the first set of record books that were scanned by the Maryland State Archives, funded by the Turnbaugh Trust. These records are available for your viewing on the Maryland State Archives website under special collections, use keyword Reisterstown United Methodist Church. But to make it easy for you, we have also created links to the records on the church's website: <http://rumcweb.org/about/rumc-history/historical-records/>. The following is a list of the record books scanned so far:

- ◆ Reisterstown and Deer Park Church Register, 1905-1920, black cover
- ◆ Official Church Record, Historical Record of Permanent Data, Book 1, 1929-1940, green cover
- ◆ Grace Methodist Episcopal South Records, 1866-1905, black cover with Reisterstown, Maryland From 1867 to 1905
- ◆ Reisterstown and Deer Park Church Register, April 1920-1941, black cover
- ◆ Asbury Membership Records, 1911-1922, black and red cover
- ◆ West Point, Deer Park, Oakland, Reisterstown, Finksburg Parish Register, 1876-1894, red cover, multiple indices
- ◆ Reisterstown Church Record Minutes, Board of Trustees Year 1833-1926, marbled-paper cover
- ◆ Class Attendance Records, 1834-, church records, marbled-paper cover
- ◆ Reisterstown Church Class Book, 1827-, green cover
- ◆ Loose church record pages: Colored Class Membership, 1834; Class Membership 1834-1857

The website, Find-A-Grave, has been updated with the entries from the Reisterstown UM Church cemetery based on the stone transcriptions done by Bea and Ed Gies. If you enjoy taking pictures and are looking for something to do one day, start taking pictures of the stones in the cemetery and upload them to Find-A-Grave. If you don't know how, just let me know and I'll be glad to show you what to do or give them to me and I'll do the upload.

We have also taken some of our VHS tapes to a place to have them converted to DVD, mainly for preservation, but also so you can watch them.

Future plans are to:

- ◆ convert all of the VHS tapes given to us by Bea and Ed Gies of the VIM trips they attended to DVDs
- ◆ get more of our record books scanned for preservation (mostly our trustees' records)
- ◆ get a computer and desk set up in the Library so you can view the DVDs
- ◆ continue to organize all of the paper and pictures that have been collected over the years

If you are interested in history or just like to reminisce, please join us on the second or fourth Mondays of each month, 9:30 am in the conference room at 308. We'd love to have you join us!!

Your church library has purchased 6 copies of Franklin High School's required summer reading, The Boys in the Boat by Daniel James Brown. We are not putting these books on the shelf. Please check one out at the main desk. We request that you read the book in two weeks and return it promptly so all our Franklin students have a turn before summer ends. Mrs. Lipp is planning a discussion group on this book, so watch for announcements.

Book Club will meet Wednesday, July 20th at 6:00 at China Moon Restaurant for our summer night out. Anyone is welcome. If you have not attended in the past and want to join us, please call Cindy at 410-833-7240. We will discuss The Beekeeper's Ball by Susan Wiggs. In the beautiful Sonoma Valley area, a chef, Isabel Johansen, turns her family home into a destination cooking school. War-torn journalist Cormac O'Neill arrives to dig up old history. What secrets will he uncover?

Library Log

1. Professor Mark Norris who addressed the congregation a few times this spring on our beautiful planet and the importance of being outdoors suggested some titles we may want to read. These books are in and ready to be checked out. They are The Creation by E. O. Wilson, The Sense of Wonder by Rachel Carson, and Last Child in the Woods by Richard Louv.

2. We have two new books which may appeal to your home-making side. They are: Extending the Table by Joetta Handrich Schlaback and Knitting Stitch Bible by Maria Parry-Jones.

3. Since our library has "gone down the ocean," we would like you to help us collect seashells. Bring them back from your summer vacation and we will add them to our jar on the round table. Did you know that the scallop shell is a Christian symbol for baptism and also pilgrimage? At Christmas, we decorate Chrismons, including scallop shells, for our trees.

The food pantry will be collecting school supplies during the summer months:

- ◇ 3 ring notebooks and paper (not college ruled)
- ◇ Backpacks
- ◇ Packs of dividers
- ◇ Rulers, pencil sharpeners, erasers
- ◇ #2 Pens and pencils
- ◇ Index cards
- ◇ Folders and spiral notebooks
- ◇ Glue sticks, Elmer's glue
- ◇ Flash drives, calculators
- ◇ Composition notebooks
- ◇ Pencil cases

Another thing to remember – when school is out – children who normally eat on the Free and Reduced Meal programs—Often go hungry. Donations usually drop during the summer months when people are on vacation.

The Food Pantry's greatest need is PEANUT BUTTER AND JELLY (any flavor)

Pleasant Grove UMW
Travels to Canadian Maritime Provinces
Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island & New Brunswick
Sunday October 2—Monday October 10, 2016

Canada's Maritime Provinces - are dominated by the sea, with a long, jagged coastline punctured by picturesque bays, sandy beaches, towering cliffs, some of the prettiest towns in Canada and the freshest, tastiest lobster in the world. Driving from the US, you'll pass through the often overlooked province of New Brunswick, with plenty of world-class diversions of its own: the gritty, revitalized port of Saint John, the Acadian coast and the Bay of Fundy. Prince Edward Island (PEI) was linked to the mainland by the whopping Confederation Bridge in 1997 and possesses one of the region's most enticing culinary scenes. Leafy, laidback Charlottetown is well worth at least a couple of days, especially as it's just a short hop from the magnificent sandy beaches of the Prince Edward Island National Park. Continue to Nova Scotia, where the provincial capital of Halifax makes an appealing base from which to explore the picturesque coastline.

Price Per person— $2,200/double occupancy $2,750/single occupancy

Tour package includes: 8 nights lodging, room tax, luggage handling (1 pc. /person) 6 dinners, 1 lunch & 8 breakfasts, tax and tips included meals; Atlantic Tours' Tour Director from arrival in St. John, to NB to departure from St. John, NB; basic gratuity for Tour Director ; all bridge, road & ferry tolls from arrival in St. John to departure from St. John; fees for all sightseeing listed in itinerary, and round trip motor coach transportation. NOT INCLUDED: Meals other than those noted above, items of a personal nature, travel insurance.
