Dear Friends

Today as I write this article, my home office has been moved to our sunroom so that new flooring can go into the room that is designated the office in our new home. (Yes, I will be VERY happy when we don't have to move things that we've already moved at least twice!)

Anyway, as I write, I am looking at a backyard that we didn't plant, reminded of the amazing gifts we are given that we didn't work for, nor do we deserve. There is a huge magnolia tree in our backyard. It must have 500 buds on it that every day seem to grow another inch or two. I don't think I've ever seen a magnolia tree in full bloom before, and I can't quite imagine what it's going to look like in a week or two when it blooms.

This whole spring has held surprises of grace like that magnolia tree. Hundreds of daffodils bloomed in the front yard just before we moved in. A pink dogwood soon bloomed gloriously. There are these beautiful puff-ball plants in the garden that I now know are Alliums and right beside them are 2 clumps of peonies. Did I mention that a) I'm NOT a gardener, and b) some of these are my favorite flowers?

Such undeserved grace. Such amazing beauty.

The amazing thing about God's grace is that it a free gift that is there for us to receive. Today I am simply grateful that God's grace and bounty in the vast array of diversity in creation and Spirit gifting makes life simply breathtaking.

Psalm 104 (selected verses)

²⁴ O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. ²⁵ Yonder is the sea, great and wide, creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great.

³¹ May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord rejoice in his works—³² who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke. ³³ I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. ³⁴ May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the Lord.

Bless the Lord, O my soul. Praise the Lord!

Blessings on You

Vivian

Wherever you go

Graduations bring a commencement, or beginning, of new things.

In 1990, Dr. Seuss published Oh, the Places You’ll Go! This popular graduation gift tells in Seuss’ inimitable style of all life’s possible ups and downs, twists and turns. There will surely be excitement and slumps, fun and loneliness, purpose and confusion. And, yes, fear: “There are some [things], down the road between hither and yon, that can scare you so much you won’t want to go on.”

The sheer determination of the storybook’s life-traveler moves him/her beyond trouble and fear. But God’s children don’t have to go it alone. Life cannot take us anywhere God hasn’t been first. Furthermore, He walks beside us on every winding path and around every corner.

Graduates — and all Christians — can trust in the promise of Joshua 1:9 (NIV): “Be strong and courageous ... for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.”

All committee chairs and group leaders are welcome to use the church's zoom account starting June 1, 2020. Robine will schedule the meetings for you and you will not be limited to the 40-minute restriction that is on free Zoom accounts. Please email the church office (rumcoffice1777@gmail.com) with your request. Robine will send you instructions for your group after she schedules your meeting.
